GREYHOUND 1980
Lyman High School
Longwood, Florida
Volume 54

Getting it all together — memories, achievements, feelings . . . The 1980 school year at Lyman High was filled with memories of friendships that we shared with one another, the fun times we had with those people, and the school days at Lyman. Our achievements, whether they were pieces acquired through sports, academics, or extra curricular activities, were very important and rewarding. But our feelings were one of the most important pieces that we were getting together. The spirit of the school and devotion to it were the strongest, and these made one feel proud to be a student at Lyman High. With all these important pieces of our days at Lyman, we certainly did get it all together!

Cindy or Cindi, (whatever)

I can't believe it's already time to graduate. I've had a super year & good friends like you help make it that way. I wish ya all the luck in the future & continue with your art you have a great deal of potential.

Cyndi,
 I'm happy you were in my art class. I want to wish you the best in your art career because I'm not planning to go into art and I figure one of us should make some money. Hope you have fun

 when you graduate.

 That brightens life as we grow old.

The 1980 Greyhound staff very sincerely trusts that you enjoy this yearbook. Hopefully, it holds the best memories of your year at Lyman High School. We would like to thank "Uncle Ron", our advisor, and Jim Bolin, our Taylor representative, for all their help. Without them we wouldn't have made it.

Cindi, I won't be ordinary and say "It's been nice knowing you!" But really it has. This is your last year here and I see that graduation is possible. This is just my 5th period art class. (smile). You are a very sweet person, and your accomplishments have been a real help to me. I admire your magnificent "work in the field of art." Keep up the good work. Enjoy your summer. And remember Luck in the future. Which is definitely your thing. Good remember you & I as the National Scholastic Art Award (Finalist). Please remember me! When you where your "Gold Key", Please remember me! We both want to see you most definitely do the same. We both want to see you through that "together".

Dearest Daughter - "Cyndi"

Well, here it is time for my oldest girl to Graduate. I can hardly believe time has gone so fast. I can just look back & see you grow up in stages. It's fascinating. I know times have been hard and pretty tough for you. I know sometimes you thought you had it harder than your brother & sister and I'm sure you did. But believe me, Darling, you were no less loved. I love you very much.

You'll never know how proud I am of you. You have something that neither brother & sister have at this age. I know you think Bobby was the smartest, well maybe he was academically, but Cyndi he doesn't have (even now) the common sense that you have - all your own. You think first. Bobby and Carol stop and think after the fact. (If Carol even ever stops to think.) I know that you may not know just exactly what I notice or even that I do notice, but believe me I do. I appreciate all that you have done and I thank you.

I also am proud of your talent. I have always known you were capable and now you know it. Yes, you are very good in art and I am very proud of you. Keep it up and stay working.

Can you believe it twelve years of school - the last four with me right under your nose! Boy, you can't get by with anything... But that sometimes you wished you could. Oh well, can't have everything and I personally think having me around was great.

Thank you Cyndi, for being you. You are a swell girl and you have done yourself proud. I sure am going to miss you, around here. Just remember wherever you go on your journey to whatever is ahead of you, that my prayers are always with you.
